

◆ The key to investment success is discipline.

◆ Over time, common stocks deliver the highest rate of return; over time, the Value style of investing outperforms the Growth style, but both should be represented in the overall portfolio.

Why Nottingham?

The asset management business is competitive—we know you have excellent alternatives to consider. When it is appropriate to choose a manager, however, there are a number of reasons why Nottingham should be at the top of your list.

Respect

We respect the safety of your assets or the assets for which you are responsible. And we want those assets to continue working hard for you.

Support

We're part of your team of professional advisers, whose mission is to serve you to the best of our collective ability. Count on us to help you reach your objectives.

Common-Sense

We have labored hard to develop disciplined investment strategies that are effective, easy to understand, and easy to communicate. Our goal is consistently superior investment returns, with common stocks familiar to just about everyone.

Performance

Since our founding in 1996, we've added value to our benchmarks over most time frames. And the wisdom of our approaches is supported further by 20 years of background data.

Experience

With over 70 years' combined experience, we've seen both sides of several market cycles. The good times have been great, and the others have made us better people.

If you're interested in disciplined approaches to the management of large capitalization equity and balanced portfolios, consider Nottingham. We're happy to answer any questions you might have. Contact us. You'll be glad you did!
